Welcome Message

Welcome Message from the Congress President

A very warm welcome to the 22nd World Congress of Social Psychiatry. We live in a world that is going through a pace of change, that is as significant as the industrial revolution was to our forefathers and which brings new challenges and exciting opportunities in social psychiatry. We have worked hard to reflect the excitement of this age in a congress which brings together outstanding scientific and educational content delivered in a country and city that will surely be at the forefront of discovery and innovation in this new age.

Welcome to India, to Delhi and to our WASP Congress.

Tom K J Craig
Congress President

Welcome Message from the Chair, Scientific Committee

We are delighted to invite you to the 22nd World Congress of the World Association of Social Psychiatry to be held from November 30 - December 4, 2016 at New Delhi. This is a special occasion not only for India and the Indian Association for Social Psychiatry but also for social psychiatry in the world and we welcome you whole heartedly. The theme of the Congress at New Delhi, "Social Psychiatry in a Rapidly Changing World" is contemporary and relevant. It reflects our concern for mental health in this age of globalization and the merging of boundaries between nations due to the rapid advances in information technology. You will certainly find the deliberations of the Congress a rewarding experience giving us new insights into the emerging dynamics in these areas.

Roy Abraham Kallivayalil
Chair, Scientific Committee

Welcome Message from the Local Organising Committee

Namaste

Delhi has taken pride in welcoming guests from all over the world since the ancient times. It has been a seat of literature, art, music, and architecture. In recent times, Delhi has fast become a favourite city for hosting international scientific meetings owing to its infrastructure, ease of entry, and a rich experience that it offers. Now Delhi beckons you to attend the 22nd World Congress of the World Association of Social Psychiatry (WASP) from November 30 - December 4, 2016. Indian Association for Social Psychiatry feels privileged in organising this Congress on the theme "Social Psychiatry in a Rapidly Changing World".

The Congress will focus on the dynamics of social changes that have come to mark our times. The scientific program of the Congress includes symposia, workshops, invited lectures, free papers and posters. We invite you to share your research findings and your expertise at the Congress. We welcome you to our colourful country and wish you a great Indian experience.
